Young Scarpelli's Interest in Neoidealism, in his Correspondence with Norberto Bobbio

Abstract: In this article, making reference to the unpublished correspondence maintained with Norberto Bobbio, I propose to call attention to a little-known aspect of Uberto Scarpelli's intellectual biography, that is to his youthful interest in Italian neoidealism and, in particular, in the actualism of Giovanni Gentile, from which he definitely distanced himself only in the mid-fifties.

Keywords: Italian neoidealism, Actualism, G. Gentile, N. Bobbio, U. Scarpelli.
