Recent Developments Concerning Relations Between Law and Coercion

Abstract: While agreeing with the main thesis of Schauer's book on the crucial role of coercion in law, the author criticizes the pivotal arguments advanced in its support, focusing on three issues: 1) Schauer's interpretation of Hart's ideas on coercion, 2) the general flavour of his arguments against the received view on coercion in law and 3) his very notion of coercion.

Keywords: Coercion, H.L.A Hart, Concept of law, Essentialism.
