FEDERICO GUSTAVO PIZZETTI

Abstract: The essay presents a few and limited remarks about the Book written by John Harris How to be Good (OUP, 2016) under the point of view of the constitutional law. Precisely, the comments address two points, among the many others that the book presents: the first point is about the complexification of the legal relationships between the legal personality, the human being in a “natural form” and the recognition of fundamental rights, that are determined by enhancement techniques; the second point is about the relationship between moral and cognitive enhancement under the perspective of constitutional liberty.

Keywords: Constitutional law, Fundamental rights, Moral enhancement personality.
