

Considerazioni critiche sul diritto a morire nell'ordinanza della Corte costituzionale n. 207/2018

FRANCESCO SAVERIO BERTOLINI

Controversial Issues on the End-of-life Treatment: Analysis of the Italian Constitutional Court order No. 207 of 2018

Abstract: This article deals with the analysis of the Constitutional Court order No. 207 of 2018, in which the judge establishes that the assisted suicide has to be intended as a constitutionally granted right of individuals. In this considering, the Court stresses the attention on the law of the end-of-life options, recognizing as a constitutional freedom that to opt for the interruption of life-sustaining treatments.

Keywords: Assisted suicide, Interruption of life-sustaining treatments.

notizie di POLITEIA, XXXV, 133, 2019. ISSN 1128-2401 pp. 127-134