Some Theoretical Issues Regarding Ferrajoli's Manifesto. Ethical Monism, Moral Autonomy, Rights and the Market

Abstract: This comment seeks to address some theoretical issues regarding Ferrajoli's Manifesto: namely, its ethical monism (all political values are derived from equality), some meta-ethical problems regarding moral autonomy and ethical non-cognitivism and relativism, and Ferrajoli's views on the relationship between social and civil rights and State and the free market.

Keywords: Equality, Value pluralism, Moral autonomy, Fundamental rights.
