

Partisanship and Political Liberalism beyond Reasonableness

MATTEO BONOTTI

Abstract: I am extremely grateful to Enrico Biale, Alessandro Ferrara and Roberta Sala for their thoughtful comments on my book Partisanship and Political Liberalism in Diverse Societies. In this paper I address some of the concerns they raise about key aspects of the book, while also identifying potential avenues for future research on the normative dimensions of parties and partisanship.

Keywords: Partisanship, Political liberalism, Rawls, Unreasonableness.
