The Justificatory Dilemma of Liberalism: Between Ideal and Non-ideal Theory

Abstract: The article discusses Federica Liveriero's proposal to address the justificatory dilemma at the core of liberalism by redefining the tasks of ideal and non-ideal theory. In particular, the analysis focuses on how the proposed approach can handle cases in which the outcomes of ideal and non-ideal theory diverge.

Keywords: Liberalism, Justificatory dilemma, Ideal and non-ideal theory.
