Some Remarks to Kristan, Tuzet and Zorzetto Comments

Abstract: On the occasion of a discussion about my book Principios jurídicos implícitos (Marcial Pons 2018), in this article I clarify my position about the thesis on strong judicial discretionality, the coherence of law from a positivist position, the scope of abduction as a method to justify the use of implicit principles, the relationship between defeatibility and specialty criteria, and the question of whether it is possible to distinguish between antinomies of easy and difficult resolution.

Keywords: Implicit principles, Coherence, Abduction, Discretionality, Antinomies, Defeasibility.
