

Sulla fondazione ontologica dell'etica ambientale: una replica ai critici

ANDREA PORCIELLO

On the Ontological Foundation of Environmental Ethics: a Reply to my Critics

Abstract: In this short essay I will try to respond to the criticisms that Sergio Filippo Magni and Valeria Marzocco have bring forward of my book Filosofia dell'ambiente. Ontologia, etica, diritto (2022). My goal is not so much to reply point by point to these critical indications, but, where possible, to clarify my perspective in the hope that this will suffice to mitigate the cause of contention.

Keywords: Environmental ethics, Ontology, Freedom, Epistemology, Science.
