Some Remarks on a Book Regarding the Impact of Digital Technologies on Fundamental Rights

Abstract: The newest publication, edited by Silvia Salardi, Michele Saporiti, and Margareth Vetis Zaganelli, of the results of joint scientific research between the Italian University of Milano-Bicocca and the Brazilian Universidad Federal do Espírito Santo proposes a bundle of thoughtful reflections on the impact that the new digital technologies (in particular, those using A.I.) could have on the human person and his fundamental rights.

Keywords: Human rights, Artificial intelligence, Biotechnologies.
