Some Brief Considerations on the Relationship between Fake News, Truth and the Crisis of Democracy

Abstract: This short essay aims to reflect on some problematic aspects related to the increasing diffusion of fake news. The analysis has been prompted by the reading of the text Che cosa sono le fake news? of Tommaso Piazza and Michel Croce that provides both an analytical definition of this concept and some indications for elaborating defensive methods against them. In particular, in this text some comments on the relationship between fake news and truth will be provided, evaluating the derailing effect that they determine within the space of democratic confrontation.

Keywords: Fake news, Truth, Identity, Crisis, Democracy.
