

Emilio D'Orazio

Director, Politeia

Emilio D'Orazio is Director of Politeia Centre for Ethics and Public Choices since 1995. Politeia is a non-profit organisation based in Milan, founded in 1983 with the purpose of promoting theoretical discussion in Italy on the relationship between ethics and public choices, www.politeia-centrostudi.org.

Emilio D'Orazio teaches courses in business ethics and CSR.

He has been active as a consultant for Italian companies in the field of corporate ethics and CSR since the early nineties, served as a member of the editorial board of “Etica degli Affari e delle Professioni”, the first European journal of business ethics and was Secretary General of the Italian Business Ethics Network.

He is a member of the Scientific Committee of the Fondazione per la Diffusione della Responsabilità Sociale delle Imprese (ICSR-Italian Centre for Social Responsibility) and is involved in developing the POLITEIA Annual Forum on Business Ethics and CSR in a Global Economy.

Recent Publications:

- 1) (ed.), Corporate and Stakeholder Responsibility. Theory and Practice, “Notizie di Politeia”, XXV, 93, 2009;
- 2) (ed.), Corporate and Stakeholder Responsibility for Sustainability, “Notizie di Politeia”, XXVI, 98, 2010;
- 3) (ed.), The Corporation as a Political Actor: A New Role of Business in a Global Society, “Notizie di Politeia”, XXVII, 103, 2011;
- 4) (ed.), Business and Human Rights: In Search of Accountability, “Notizie di Politeia”, XXVIII, 106, 2012;
- 5) (ed.), Corporations and Global Justice: Should Multinational Corporations be Agents of Justice?, “Notizie di Politeia”, XXIX, 111, 2013.