

Davide Del Monte

Project Officer of Transparency International Italia

Davide Del Monte is the project officer of Transparency International Italia, the National Chapter of Transparency International the worldwide leading NGO for the promotion of transparency and the fight against corruption.

Born in Milan on 26th January 1979, Del Monte graduated in 2005 in Political Science, with a thesis about the post WWII period in Milan and the reconstruction of the bombed city.

He has been coordinating several international projects and activities, such as the “NIS - National Integrity System” project, the “Countdown to Impunity!” and the whistleblower protection (“Alternative to Silence”) campaigns.

In the last year he is working, with other national and international experts, for the implementation of Open Government procedures in Italy.