

Nora Götzmann

Analyst, Human Rights and Business Department, Danish Institute for Human Rights

Nora Götzmann works as an Analyst at the Human Rights and Business Department, The Danish Institute for Human Rights. She works with multinational companies to improve understanding of human rights risks and impacts and to develop ways of integrating human rights into business practice. She also works with civil society to build capacity to engage on human rights and business. Nora has previously worked at the Centre for Social Responsibility in Mining, Australia, where her work focused on human rights due diligence and grievance resolution. She has also contributed to the work of the Special Representative of the UN Secretary-General on Business and Human Rights on several topics, including the Corporate Law Tools Project. Nora holds a BA/LLB(Hons) from the University of Queensland, Australia.