

Flavia Mirabelli

Human Resources Business Partner, Bombardier

Flavia Mirabelli is the Human Resources Business Partner of Bombardier Transportation's Business Unit Locomotives, global leader in rail technology.

Since July 1st 2011 Flavia Mirabelli has been promoted to the role of Head of Coordination and Strategic Trend of 2,200 in 5 different sites dedicated to Engineering and Locomotives Production located in Italy, Poland, Switzerland, Germany and India.

With about 20 years of Human Resources knowledge, Flavia Mirabelli has covered in her career, all the HR functional roles, from Industrial Relations to Personnel management, from Management Development to Recruiting and Talent identification, and has established her role of Human Resource Manager, in Italy and abroad, both in large Public Groups and in mid size private companies, as well as in large Multinational Groups like in her current role of Human Resource Director of Bombardier Transportation.

Strong believer of Company wellness as tangible result of personal equilibrium of its human resources, Flavia has successfully experienced solid deployment of Ethic Codes in day by day management till their integration in the Company's Rewarding Systems.

Persons are the main focus of Flavia's Education both at University level (Laurea degree in Literature and Courses at Susan Stransberg's Actor Studio) and Post-Grad with Master degree and specialization courses in Human Resources Management, Diversity Management and Executive Coaching.