

Lorenzo Solimene

Senior Manager in KPMG Risk & Compliance, Global Climate Change and Sustainability Services

Lorenzo Solimene has a degree in Business Administration at Università degli Studi di Salerno and obtained a Master in "Theory of decisions and management", Corporate Social Responsibility- Business Ethics at Carlo Cattaneo University.

He joined KPMG in 2000, since that he has progressively specialized in Corporate Responsibility and Corporate Governance. Lorenzo helps clients in social ethical and environmental accounting and reporting with focus on "non financial value drivers" and their connections to core financial metrics. He also advises in integrity and compliance management, in definition of strategic sustainability plan, stakeholder engagement, intellectual capital assessment, Human rights program, assistance to SA 8000 and ISO certification (ISO 14064, ISO 14001, ISO 50001,etc..). He also has experience in AA1000 Framework, CDP, GRI and assurance services in accordance with ISAE 3000. Moreover Lorenzo is a lecturer on sustainability issues in some masters at important Italian University like Bocconi University, Politecnico di Milano, Cattolica University and Università degli Studi di Salerno.

Lorenzo is a member of:

- Technical Committee of "Istituto Italiano della Donazione" (IID).
- Commission on "Assurance on non financial information" in ASSIREVI (Association of Italian Audit Firms).
- Commission „Organizzazioni Non Erogative Nonprofit" - Oscar di Bilancio.
- Commission "Fondazioni di Origine Bancaria, Fondazioni d'Impresa, Organizzazioni Erogative Nonprofit" - Oscar di Bilancio.
- Italian Network for Business Reporting (NIBR) - WICI Italy.
- Working group "intangibles and sustainability report" of GBS.
- GRI Organizational Stakeholders for representing KPMG Italy.
- AA1000AS (2008) Licensed Providers for representing KPMG Italy.
- Coordinator for County of Marche (Regione Marche) of IREM System ( Sistema regionale delle imprese socialmente responsabili).