

Giacomo Manetti

Assistant Professor in Financial Accounting, University of Florence

Dr Manetti was born in Pistoia in 1975. After the degree in Economics in 2000, he got his Ph.D. in Planning and Control at the University of Florence in 2004.

Dr. Manetti is Assistant Professor in Financial Accounting at the Department of Business Administration-Faculty of Economics of the University of Florence since 2009.

His research interests focus on issues and topics related to corporate social responsibility, sustainability reporting and assurance, social enterprises and third sector.

He is the author of many articles published on national (e.g. Financial Reporting, Politeia, Azienda Pubblica, EA2000, Rivista dei Dottori Commercialisti) and international journals (Journal of Business Ethics, Corporate Social Responsibility and Environmental Management, Non Profit and Voluntary Sector Quarterly) and of three books.

He teaches “Financial accounting” at undergraduate level and “Management accounting for cooperatives and non profit organizations” at postgraduate level at the University of Florence.