The quality of stakeholder engagement (SE) in sustainability reporting (SR) is a fundamental step of the reporting process because of its role in defining materiality and relevance of the information communicated.