

Roberto Vavassori

The presentation revolves around the issue of what Corporate Ethical Responsibility is requesting to companies in terms of additional information to be shared with the relevant stakeholders and bringing into light Brembo's experience to discuss whether it is appropriate to search for synthesis of the various information that concur to form the reporting mosaic of one listed company. Part of the presentation will cover Brembo's experience with the intangible report.